ENJOYABLE FLORIDA TOUR Mrs. Fleeta Parker reports an enjoyable tour of Florida, includ-VOLUMN 58 ing visits at Crestview, Bellwood, Ocala, McInstosh, Gainesvill and Jacksonville. She said she saw many interesting sights and enjoyed every minute of her week's tour.

SNAKES COME TO TOWN Among those who have reported killing large snakes inside the corporate limits of Elba are Sheriff H. D. Tillman and Dana B. Perdue. Sheriff Tillman recently killed a large rattlesnake in his back yard and Mr. Perdue killed a rattlesnake pilot back of the home of Mr. and Mr Randy Randall in West Elba.

When the Elba schools Monday morning, Sept. 7, the 1953-54 term, five new roo will be available-four cla rooms and one for Jimmy renos' school band. Supt. J. Casey states that is elated overMrs. Paul Hobbs and George Fryer, accountant at Flack Lumber the acquisition of the additional space as it will relieve the acut space as it will be space as it will relieve the acut space as it will rel afford adequate facilities for taking care of even more enrollment than the school had last

Schools will open Monday morning, Sept. 7, at nine o'clock with appropriate exercises in the school auditorium. On account of inadequate space, pupils of the first four grades will report to and assemble in their own rooms, as was the case last year. The school has grown to such proportions that all of the pupils, and parents and friends cannot be accommodated in the auditoriu Supt. Casey said beginne must be six years of age on o before Oct. 1 to be eligible start in the primary grade. Gun in hand, he paused around the first corner of the

by the sky light and heard no Prowling on the thick carpeting Manny rapidly located the glassed in front office, right in back of the show window. Wrenching quietly at the unlocked knob, he froze in sudden terror as a voice cracked through the gloom.

"Hey—you!" It sounded authoritative, arbitrary. "What d'ya think you're doing?' Manny had no desire to talk things over. He plunged on through the door, dropped to one knee be hind the desk and pulled his flat, ugly gun-all in one practiced movement. The flat gun cracked, jumping in his hand, and a tongue of orange flame stabbed toward the motion. He heard an answering roar and his stomach went hollow fear jolting through him as a splint er of wood split from the desk by shooting at people who fough back. Like a scared cat, he turne and darted for the big front win dow. There was a crash of shat tered glass, and the gunman rolled across the sidewalk. Spurred by fright, Manny tool chances he wouldn't have believe himself capable of. Leaping across roof tops, swinging up and down emergency ladders and fire es capes, he fled across the top own like an overgrown bat. The minute his feet hit the lawn, h broke into a trot, heading for the nearest breaks among the houses More calmly now, he surveyed the situation. Well, maybe he didn' get any money, but at least he wa still free. Manny plodded awkwar ly over the ploughed furrows un he saw the welcome sight crumbling walls ahead. At leas it looked like a place to hide. dragged toward the wall, and the around it-too tired to over its ruin. Soon, he found gate and the little shack it: both had been abandon years. Staring back into the empty estate, he could see the ruins of decaying mansion Dawn greyed the sky as Mann limped through the gate an shoved the rotting door open. T his surprise, the little gate was fairly clean, though the fair light showed no sign of occupants or furniture. There were only tw rooms and the thug prowled through both cautiously. Bums, h guessed, used it as a hang-out. Too fatigued to worry, Manny re laxed in a corner. Manny Kimble did more tha sleep-he collapsed. The physical and emotional strain had numbed every faculty, and he flopped like a heap of limp rags. Even the cars on the road outside didn disturb him; not even when the turned up the weed choked drive and parked around the abandoned yard. Uniformed drivers piled out good - naturedly, slapping other on the back, laughing and talking. Many of them were help heaping baskets of food.

The first four cars to park in th rapidly filling yard had great cloth banners fastened along the sides. "Sheriffs' Annual Picnic," the signs read. "Old Lawndale Estate. G your tickets at the gatehouse.' Manny slept in peaceful ignor ance as the county sheriff and two of his deputies started for the small building. The sheriff was laughing and talking, a roll of cardboard tickets slapping carelessly agains his holstered pistol as he walked.
